PAUL, MINN., Dec. 15.—The news of the killing of Sitting Bull has been confirmed by advices received by General Miles at the military headquarters in this city.He received two dispatches this evening, the first from Pierre, S. D., stating that Sitting Bull and his son had been killed, but giving no further particulars. The other dispatch was from Standing Rock Agency and stated that the Indian police started out this morning to arrest Sitting Bull, having understood that he proposed starting for the Bad Lands at once. The police were followed by a troop of cavalry, under Captain Fouchet, and infantry under Colonel Dorn.*When the police reached Sitting Bull's camp on the Grand river, about forty miles from Standing Rock, they found arrangements being made for departure.*The cavalry had not yet reached the camp when the police arrested Sitting Bull and started back with him. His followers quickly rallied to his rescue and tried to retake him. In the melee that ensued the chief and five of the best Indian police were killed. The police then jumped on one of Sitting Bull's horses and rode back to the cavalry and infantry, telling them to hurry up to the support of the police, and then hurried to the Agency with news of the battle.*Nothing later than this has been received, but the death of Sitting Bull and of at least five of those who had captured him seems undoubtedly true.*LATER—THE REPORT CONFIRMED.A Washington dispatch says: Indian Commissioner Morgan this evening received from Indian Agent McLaughlin the following dispatch, dated Fort Yates, N. D., December 15:"Indian police arrested Sitting Bull at his camp on the Grand river, and he and his followers were killed. The police then jumped on one of Sitting Bull's horses and rode back to the cavalry and infantry, telling them to hurry up to the support of the police, and then hurried to the Agency with news of the battle.*Nothing later than this has been received, but the death of Sitting Bull and of at least five of those who had captured him seems undoubtedly true.*LATER—THE REPORT CONFIRMED.*A Washington dispatch says: Indian Commissioner Morgan this evening received from Indian Agent McLaughlin the following dispatch, dated Fort Yates, N. D., stated that a letter had just been received by a courier from Captain Wells at the mouth of French creek, stating that a fight had occurred there December 12 between twenty scouts and a roaming band of Sioux. Five Indians were reported killed, but the loss of the whites was not given.A dispatch from General Brooke said that reports received by him on the night of the 13th showed a decidedly hostile intent on the part of the Indians on the Bad Lands. He feared that a collision between citizens and Indians had turned the scale. Information from Fort Bennett goes to show that the Indians at Cherry Creek Agency are greatly excited, and under the leadership of Big Foot they are keeping up the ghost dance. The Indian excitement is increased by the report that bands of Sioux from Rosebud and Pine Ridge are moving in the direction of Cherry Creek.*Not Yet Confirmed.*WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 15.—General Schofield received a telegram from General Miles confirming the press reports of dissection among the Indians on the Bad Lands. A report had been received in regard to the reported engagement between troops and Indians, it is not believed that such a thing occurred.Another Confirmation.*CHICAGO, Dec. 15.—At 9 o'clock ## A WHEELING CASE.

Arguments Submitted by Counsel in the Bridge Matter*BEFORE THE SUPREME COURT*OF THE UNITED STATES—Motion to Dis- miss the Writ of Error Made*By Mr. Hubbard—Decision Probably Next Monday.*Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.*WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 15.—Soon after the opening of the session of the United States Supreme Court at noon today Senator Faulkner, who was present, accompanied by Representative G. W. Atkinson, A. J. Clarke and Henry M. Russell, of Wheeling, arose and asked that the three gentlemen named be admitted to practice before the court.The three Wheeling gentlemen were then sworn in and retired to the clerk's office, paid their initiation fee, and then returned to the court room. Immediately afterward Mr. W. P. Hubbard was recognized by the Chief Justice and made a motion to dismiss the writ of error obtained by the Wheeling and Belmont Bridge Company (the old company) to the judgment of the West Virginia Circuit Court of Appeals, basing the motion on the ground that the Supreme Court of the United States has no jurisdiction; and in case the court held that it had jurisdiction, Mr. Hubbard further asked that the judgment of the Circuit Court be set aside, and that the case be remanded to that court for a new trial.*Mr. Hubbard's motion was denied, and the case was set for argument on Monday next. The case is one of the most important that has come before the Supreme Court in many years.*Another Confirmation.*CHICAGO, Dec. 15.—At 9 o'clock to-night Assistant Adjutant General Corbin, of gressively Forwarded.*BOSTON, Dec. 15.—Ex-Assistant Postmaster General Clarkson, who is in town to visit his two sons who are at Harvard, in an interview on National topics, said he did not believe in talking much about the last defeat. He did not ascribe to the big importers an extraordinary large share in the general result. "We must," he said, "be as smart as the Democrats and go to the family and to every interest and show them the interest they have in standing by the McKinley bill and thus develop American interests. We must show the workingman that if he gets free trade prices, he will also receive free trade wages. We have gone on the wrong track with this measure and must establish the popularity."Speaking of the Election Bill, Mr. Clarkson said: "I am for the Election Bill, but not for the amendment. I am willing that other voters in the land should have as fair a show as he has himself. That's all there is in the Election Bill. Some of the Senators who are inclined to let the bill be defeated through delay." Of the prospects for financial legislation Mr. Clarkson thought there was a majority in each House for the bill. "We need to know what the President would do with such a bill. "We need a revision of our banking system in the interest of the farmer, the laborer and the small trader. The Farmers Alliance has come to the front, and the question of the banking system is made."*THE RAILROAD PRESIDENTS.*An Association of Western Men Formed in New York.*NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—The meeting of the presidents of railroads west of Chicago, called for the purpose of forming a Western Association, met at 10:30 o'clock today at J.
